

Open Position: Senior clinician in Emergency and Critical Care in Bern, Switzerland

The Small Animal Clinic of the Vetsuisse Faculty, University of Bern, Switzerland, is recruiting a specialist (boarded or eligible) in Emergency and Critical Care (ACVECC/ECVECC) or in Internal Medicine (ACVIM/ECVIM) with special interest in emergency and critical care to join the emergency and critical care team.

The Vetsuisse Faculty Bern is centrally located and is made up of international faculty and staff from various European and other countries. The Small Animal Clinic is a large referral hospital with a case load of 6000 cases per year, half of which are presented as emergency patients. The hospital has an intensive care unit and a 24/7 emergency service and is an approved ACVECC and ECVECC residency training center. At present, 2 residents are enrolled in the ACVECC residency training program.

The clinic is well equipped and has multiple specialty services, run by board-certified clinicians including Internal Medicine, Nephrology, Soft Tissue and Orthopedic Surgery, Neurology and Neurosurgery, Diagnostic Imaging, Anesthesia, Dermatology, Ophthalmology, Cardiology and Clinical Pathology.

Apart from clinical duties the candidate will be expected to actively participate in the supervision and training of residents (ECC as well as residents of other departments), teaching of interns and students, and take responsibility of certain administrative and organizational aspects. The candidate should have excellent communication skills, team spirit, and be eager to take initiative and to develop professionally.

Most clients coming to the hospital speak German or French and knowledge of either language is ideal but not mandatory. Fluency in English and the willingness to learn either French or German would be desirable.

Do not hesitate to contact us for further information.

Applications with a current CV, copy of the pertinent diplomas, names of 3 persons willing to write letters of reference as well as a description of your career goals should be sent to: katja.adamik@vetsuisse.unibe.ch
